The book that made me a Fanwing was book 3.
The Hidden Kindom was one of the best books I have ever read. I LOVE Glory. She is not a Skywing, but she is the best Draglet of Desiny ever!

As I live in the UK, Wings of fire isn't sold in anywhere near me, and hence my late discovery of it. About three years ago, an online friend reccommended the series to me. I've always had a dragon obsession, so I thought I'd give it a try. The Dragonet Prophecy was AMAZING, and I was hooked already! But the book that stood out to me was certainly The Lost Heir. After finishing it, I was so in love with the series I read the rest of the first arc within a month. I can't exactly tell what it was that I loved about the book, but the Sea Kingdom is just so dazzling and intriguing.

Starting the second arc, I didn't feel the same love, possibly because I was sad that my favourite dragonets had come to finish their adventures. Fortunately, reading Winter Turning got me right back into the fandom. I cant even express my love for that book, it has to be my favourite in the entire series. From then to now, my love for the dragons of Pyrrhia (and Pantala!) has become stronger than ever before, and I'm impatiently sitting here, counting the days until the release of The Poison Jungle.

In conclusion, The Lost Heir and Winter Turning deepend my love for Wings of Fire significantly. I can't imagine what I'd be fangirling over now if those two books hadn't come out!

The first book (The Dragonet Phrophecy).

It started in a couple years back when my teacher had the first 6 or 7 Wings of Fire books. I decided to pick up the first book. At first, I wasn't interested in it. But after Winter break (pun probably intended), I was hooked. I eventually got a book fair phamplet, and I saw an oppurtunity to get the first 7 books bundled in with an online order. I begged my grandmom and she said yes, thus allowing me to buy the books.

Here I am now, a diehard Wings of Fire fan. I own books 1-7 and 10-12, along with both Graphic Novels. I have read every book in the series, including Escaping Peril, Talons of Power, Legends: Darkstalker (all three through my old school's library), and the first 3 Winglets books (through a collection book that my teacher back then owned in her classroom library). I also have many of my profile pictures and wallpapers Wings of Fire related, and have an interest in drawing dragons, especially those from the WOF franchise.Preview
